Please initial

- Attendance to Group lessons is highly encouraged and an integral part of the Suzuki Philosophy! Therefore, fees do not change for failure to attend. All students are also encouraged to attend as many performance opportunities as they are able! The final group before each performance is considered mandatory for performance at each concert.

Please initial

- Failure to adhere to the uniform code or attend mandatory rehearsals will automatically disqualify the SSA member from performance in that concert.

Please initial

- I agree that my child's photograph may be used for publicity and/or promotion of the group on the SSA website.

Please initial

- Any breach off approved conduct or etiquette during a SSA sponsored event can result in expulsion from group activities with no refund of dues. Students are not to be left unattended when participating in group activities.

Contracts must be returned to your private teacher, mailed with dues payments, or to the provided box at group lessons.

I acknowledge and understand the above stated guidelines and therefore agree to adhere to these policies as set forth in the SSA By-Laws and Handbook.
